

SHIPPING
August, 2014
1	China - contributed by Shanghai Kai-Rong Law Firm Recent transport developments Recent developments in the shipping and transport sector include the issuance of administrative measures governing the supervision of road transport vehicles through satellite positioning devices, the publication of draft guidance on the transformation and upgrade of ports and the Ministry of Transport's announcement that it has cancelled or delegated certain items previously requiring its approval. Author: Jin Yu-Lai Read more http://www.internationallawoffice.com/?i=55592&l=7LVLPJC
2	Nigeria - contributed by Akabogu & Associates Maritime Labour Convention is ratified amid constitutional issues Nigeria's ratification of the Maritime Labour Convention is a welcome development for the country's maritime industry. However, implementation may present some legal and constitutional hurdles, as the convention has not been enacted into domestic law by the National Assembly, which the Constitution requires for any treaty or convention signed by the government to have force of law. Author: Nwabueze Anachebe Read more http://www.internationallawoffice.com/?i=55592&l=7LVLPMD