

A Strategic Approach to International Arbitration in Korea and Vietnam: Commerce, Investment and Infrastructure

July 14th (Fri), 2017 | Ho Chi Minh, Vietnam

INVITATION

The Ministry of Justice of the Republic of Korea (MOJ), The Korean Commercial Arbitration Board (KCAB), Vietnam International Arbitration Centre (VIAC), and Seoul International Dispute Resolution Center (SIDRC) are co-hosting a seminar on strategic approaches to international arbitration in Korea and Vietnam. As we witnessed a great success in last year's seminar, this year's seminar has been organized to take our relationship between Korea and Vietnam one step further.

Today's seminar covers more specific and practical topics, and focuses on infrastructure disputes and their dispute resolution mechanisms. The seminar will provide local and foreign enterprises and legal professionals a perfect venue to discuss current issues on international infrastructure disputes in Korea and Vietnam with the support of our distinguished and knowledgeable experts. We would like to invite and welcome all interested parties to the upcoming seminar.

For registration, please click the Register RSVP below and complete the registration no later than 7 July 2017. Thank you.
